

Argentina
Ministry of Labor, Employment and Social Security
Mission

---

Mission

The Ministry of Labor, Employment and Social Security is a national institution, which is dependent on the Executive branch, and has the mission of serving citizens in its areas of competency.

It is part of the governmental administrative structure that designs and executes labor and social security public policies. It proposes, designs, elaborates, administrates and regulates policies for all areas of labor, employment and labor relations, professional training and social security.