

Peru
Ministry of Labor and Employment Promotion
Mission and vision

Mission

Promote decent and productive employment, as well as the enforcement of labor and fundamental rights of the population, through the strengthening of social dialogue, employability and protection of vulnerable groups, within the framework of an institutional management model focused on their citizen.

Vision

Highly employed citizenship, protected by their labor rights, developed in an environment that contributes to the sustainable and inclusive progress of the country, which guarantees decent and productive employment, the practice of harmonious labor relations of social responsibility.